

Christine has profound knowledge regarding the topic and effectively alternates between education and assignments. Her workbook provides the right support during the workshop, but is also something to continue to use afterwards. Christine is an amazing coach. I highly recommend Christine.

In May 2024, I decided to trust Christine as my Mind Coach, and it was the best decision of my life. By early August 2024, I had secured my dream job, improved my mental health, lost weight effortlessly, enhanced my relationships, stepped out of my comfort zone, quit non-serving habits, and found true happiness!

Stefania Gauci

I've noticed a significant improvement in my focus and performance, thanks to the practical tools and techniques I learned in the workshop. The coaching sessions that followed were the perfect addition, creating a great space for learning and growth.

I attended Christine's 'Freedom from Time' group workshop and was blown away! Before, I used to fill my whole calendar with "perfect" tasks to do to keep me productive, while not doing them anyway. This changed immediately after.

Purpose Coach

Christine is an excellent trainer and coach. I am grateful for the opportunity to participate in her "Freedom from Time" workshop. Three hours of full immersion in the awareness of daily actions made me realize that even within 24 hours, you can find 48!

Head of Group

have had the privilege of working with Christine for a number of years during our time at HSBC. I can confidently say she is an amazing leader who always fostered a positive and inclusive work culture. She never shies away from any challenges or tough situations; she supports her team to come up with solutions.
